Dayton Girl Dies In Auto Crash On Honeymoon Trip

Fatal Wreck Takes Place Near Tampa

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Hope of a young Dayton, O., couple for a honeymoon on semi-tropic "Honeymoon Island" was dashed tragically early today when the 16-year-old bride of a week was killed in an automobile accident.

County Traffic Officer Jack Combie said the girl was the former Opal Elaine Anderson of Dayton, O., who had eloped a week ago with 19-year-old Gene Floyd of Dayton. Combie said they planned to stay in one of the free cottages on the Gulf of Mexico island haven west of here sponsored by wealthy Clinton M. Washburn while Floyd looked for a job.

Ironically, the death trip apparently was made without the young couple realizing that the "honeymoon island" refuge they sought had been closed for some time.

The girl's skull was fractured when the old model car overturned on a curve. Floyd was uninjured, but appeared shocked.

They were within 25 miles of their destination.

Combie said Floyd told him they had eloped Nov. 12 to Richmond, Ind., where the marriage ceremony was performed.

Floyd told Combie he had $13 in his pockets. He asked officers to notify the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Anderson, and his brother. The accident occurred between here and Clearwater.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Anderson, 1020 Demphle av., were advised of the tragic death of their daughter at 6 o'clock Friday morning, when they received a telegram from F. J. Diaz of the Florida state police. The parents said that the last word they had received from the youthful couple was a telephone call, Monday morning, from Carrollton, Ky., after they had started for Florida the previous night.

MR. AND MRS. GENE FLOYD

Opal Elaine Anderson Floyd, 16, is Mrs. Ray Anderson's daughter.

Gene and Opal Elaine had been schoolmates at Lincoln school and both were attending Wilbur Wright high school when they were married Nov. 12. Four days later they started on a trip which was to culminate in a visit to Florida's "Honeymoon Isle."

The young husband, before his marriage, lived with his mother at 606 Fritz av.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were making arrangements today to return the body of Opal Elaine to Dayton for funeral services. She was an only child.

The two young Daytonians had been schoolmates at Lincoln school, and both were attending Wilbur Wright high school when they were married. Four days later they started on their wedding trip. Floyd had $13 in his pockets at the time of the accident, which occurred when the old model car failed to make a curve.

Mrs. Floyd was the former Elaine Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Anderson, of the Demphle avenue address.

According to word received by the family of the young bridegroom from the Hillsborough (Fla.) county sheriff's office, the car went out of control at a dead end road. The young husband, it was reported, received only a slight cut on the head.

16-Year-Old Dayton Bride Dies in Florida Crash

Newlyweds En Route to Honeymoon Isle; Married One Week Ago

A 16-year-old Dayton bride of a week was killed Friday when the car in which she and her young husband were riding en route to a honeymoon island in Florida plunged off the highway and turned over a few miles outside Tampa.

The young bride, Mrs. Opal Elaine Anderson Floyd, and her husband, Eugene Floyd, 19, had eloped a week ago to Richmond, Ind., and were on the way to a honeymoon haven in the Gulf of Mexico. Floyd suffered only minor cuts in the crash, which occurred, according to a report from the Hillsborough (Fla.) sheriff's office, when the car went out of control at a dead-end road.

Mrs. Floyd made her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Anderson, of 1020 Demphle avenue, and young Floyd lived with his mother at 606 Fritz avenue. They had planned to establish their own home after their return from the island haven, which, ironically, had been closed, although the young people did not know it.

The two youthful Daytonians had been schoolmates at Lincoln school and both were attending Wilbur Wright high school when they were married. Four days after the wedding, they had started on their wedding trip and had notified their families Monday night from Carrollton, Ky., that they were going to Florida.

Mrs. Floyd was born in Dayton and had lived here all her life. Survivors, besides her husband and parents, are a half-brother, Robert Anderson, and her grandmother, Mrs. Ida Cooley. The parents Friday night were making arrangements to return the body to Dayton for funeral services.

Baccalaureate Services Held for 1941 Graduates

Seniors Urged to Live Best Lives Possible and Appreciate Advantages

Baccalaureate services for seniors of Wilbur Wright, Fairview, Stivers, Kiser and Dunbar high schools were held Sunday.

Rev. Hugh I. Evans addressed the graduating classes of Wilbur Wright at 5:30 p. m. and of Fairview-White at 7:30 p. m. in Westminster Presbyterian church on the subject, "American Heritage and Destiny."

Stivers' services were held at 7:30 p. m. at the NCR auditorium with Rev. Phil Porter delivering the sermon. Kiser services also were held at 7:30 in the First Baptist church and Dunbar seniors met at the school auditorium.

"Because we have freedom and so much is given to us, we must live up to the highest level, we must live the best lives possible," Dr. Evans told Wilbur Wright and Fairview-White seniors.

Americans are given an abundance of resources, an outlook on life without an inherited hate, a religion unfettered by artificial and unreal traditions, a remoteness from the constant clash of races and nations, the advantages of a high wage level, and universal education, Dr. Evans said, concluding, "we are given the unique opportunity of having the destiny of our nation in our hands."

In My Flower Garden

As I was strolling through my garden one day.

I met with a dandy - lion,
So frightened was I, that I jumped so high.

I felt as though I were flyin'.
I soon came down with such a thump,

It made me feel quite silly,
But I was soon up and off again,
When I spied a tiger-lily.

I climbed up Jacob's ladder,
And sure was glad to see,

Dear Reverend Jack-in-the-pulpit,
Who once tried to reform me

After a few minutes of quiet life,
I left in a little wagon,

But it wasn't long until I was sneezed at.

This time, I had no place to run,
Much less, a place to hide,

But, I caught hold of some bacchelor buttons,
And flung them into his side.

When the dragon was dead, and all was clear,

I decided to depart,
And I vowed I'd stroll through my garden no more,

For I'd die of a bleeding heart.

Memories

George Somers

Goodbye tennis, golf and track,
Goodbye boys who won't be back.
Football and basketball won't be the same
Not playing under the Wilbur Wright name.

Just think of the boys who will leave
No more letters will they receive;
Kramer who has the total of three
Instead of playing, will come to see.

While the handsomely built Jackie Frech
Is something that'll be hard to forget
Grenko and Blue will leave a pleasant thought

As on the field side by side they fought.

You'll remember Gregg with that clever smile

Or Richeson laughing all the while;
Bob Everett and his black curly hair
Will be a memory very fair.

You can think of Lackey who was so tall
Or Coffey and Miler rather small
Or wonder about all the rest;

Who started the first year by doing their best.

Diplomas were awarded Thursday night to the first graduating class of the new Wilbur Wright high school. Music, in which field the new high school has won national prominence, was the theme of talks by four student speakers.

Speakers were Dorothy Francis "Music in Life"; Jack Frech, "Music in Public Schools"; Dorothy Gauby, "Music in Religion," and William Myers, "Music and the Graduate." Musical and choral selections also were prominent on the program.

Robert Schaefer, class president, introduced the class. Principal Jay William Holmes presented the class to Superintendent Emerson H. Landis. Rev. John S. Altman gave the invocation and benediction.
